WHARF AND WAVE.

The ship Hawaiian Isles arrived at Queenstown on the 8th inst.

It is said that the Arawa had to refuse about 600 tons of freight at Vancouver for this port.

The schooner O. M. Kellogg has been chartered to load lumber from Gray's Harbor to Honolulu.

The German bark J. C. Glade has been chartered to load wheat from San Francisco to Europe.

The cruiser Champion left port on Saturday afternoon, bound for Esquimault via Necker Island. About thirty men arrived on the Arawa; they will assist in building the Oabu railway extension. H. B. M. S. Satellite, Commander A. J. Allen, recently arrived at San Diego from England, on her way to Esquimalt.

The Belgic's Japanese steerage passengers, thirty-two in all, have been placed in quarantine. They will be liberated on Saturday.

Teams were kept busy yesterday removing the Arawa's freight from the Mail wharf to make room for the Belgic's cargo, consisting of about 1120 tons.

The steamers leaving today are the Belgic for San Francisco at 3 P. M., the Mikahala for Kausi, the

The engineers' trial trip of the cruiser Oregon, built at San Francisco, will take place about the 20th of next month. The first trip of the ship, made for the purpose of H B M S Champton, Rooke, for Esqui-trying her machinery, was to take place on the 14th inst.

Stuart, arrived on Saturday morning, nine days from Vancouver via Star Rawail, Fitzgerald, for ports on Victoria. She brought seven cabin passengers and forty in the steerage for this port, besides 1100 tons of freight, principally feedstuffs. Sterr Claudine, Cameron, for Mani at She resumed her voyage at mid-

VALLEJO (Cal.), August 9.—The ninety-ton caisson of the Mare O & O S S Belgic, Walker, for San Fran- Island dock capsized and sank at the mouth of the dock Tuesday night, preventing the docking of vessels The accident was due entirely to carelessness in leaving the dock filled with water, and making no allowance for the rise and fall of the tide.

> Advices received from Liverpool state that the American Line has announced a further reduction in its steerage rates from London, Liverpool and Queenstown to any of its American ports to 36 shillings for adults, including an outfit. This rate has never been approached before in the history of the Atlantic service.

A gasoline schooner has been built at California City by Lynd & Hough for their codfish trade. It is expected to have her running within two weeks. The business of the firm in shipping codfish to Chicago has increased greatly recently, and they were compelled to improve their transportation facilities from the fisheries to the railroad wharves.
